Agreement to Mediate

I / We agree to try to settle the disagreement by mediation. I/We agree that everything said or produced within the mediation process will be kept confidential, and that no copy or recording will be made.

The mediator may help with writing the final agreement if appropriate and all parties agree. The purpose and confidentiality of any written agreement, settlement or action plan will be agreed between the parties as part of the mediation process.

I/We agree that the mediator will manage the process of mediation, but will not take sides or impose a solution. I/We understand that the mediator shall not be called as a witness in any other process and will not be involved in the disagreement other than as a mediator.

Anyone (including the mediator) has the right to withdraw from the mediation at any time.

The mediator has explained this agreement and informed me that taking part in mediation does not affect my legal rights.
